

JVS Activities Program

Serving Adults with Developmental Disabilities and Other Special Needs

This exemplary year-round day program provides enriching activities and community outings for adults with developmental disabilities and other special needs. The program strives to enhance quality of life and social, emotional, physical and cognitive functioning.

Community integration in group settings has many benefits, including social skills such as self-expression, responsibility, sharing, listening and conflict resolution, which are naturally practiced and developed. This group program also creates a sense of belonging and camaraderie, which enhances self-esteem and promotes well-being.
