“SUCCESS BEST PRACTICES”

Wednesday, April 14, 2010
7:30 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Jewish Community Center
15110 W. 10 Mile Rd., Oak Park, MI

In this lively interactive session, participants will learn and apply a wide variety of simple yet powerful “success best practices” to support a journey toward professional and personal excellence. Learn:

- Techniques to build and expand your professional and personal relationships
- Ways to generate common ground and help design and align on new futures
- New perspectives related to leadership and management to achieve greater results faster
- Tools to “coach” yourself and others to stay in motion and adjust course when situations change

Guest speaker Barry Demp has worked with thousands of individuals as a business and personal coach over the past 16 years. Based in Troy, Michigan, Barry has earned the distinction of Master Certified Coach (MCC) from the International Coach Federation (ICF).
